

A clean throat defies infection

ON the other hand a throat choked with germ life may lead to serious maladies— influenza for example.

That is why we must prevent the growth of disease germs in the throat.

Formamint, the germ-killing throat tablet, does "get them." It dissolves slowly and releases a germicide powerful enough, though harmless, to actually kill these germs.

LUDENDORFF HIS ALLY

Success of Mussolini in Italy
Encourages Reaction in Other Countries.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Paris, Nov. 22.

Fascism, as the Mussolini brand of revolution is known, is slowly gaining momentum in several countries outside of Italy. Reports from THE NEW YORK HERALD correspondents show that this is true particularly in Hungary, Bavaria, Austrian Tyrol, and to some extent throughout Germany. The Mussolini brand of counter radicalism has been borrowed in some cases even to the insignia, and impressed by the success of the Italian dictator, these elements have been encouraged. But they appear to be waiting for the events of winter, when considerable distress is expected, to come out in the open, if not to strike at the existing Governments.

Whereas every European Government two years ago was concerned over the spread of Communism and possible dictatorship by radical trades unionism operating on the international idea, to-day they are more concerned in watching the counter movement in their respective countries which has been fomented by the triumph of Mussolini.

All radical and Communist newspapers in Europe have scented this new danger, and they are now pouring venom on the head of "Cesar Mussolini," as they call him. The Humanite of Paris is running a daily column devoted to attacking the Fascist. Fascism has just appeared in France. In Rheims there has been organized a national Fascist party, and it has started to organize two squadrons of members, meaning by this armed bands, as in Italy. In France, the object seems to be not yet to overthrow the existing Government but to defeat Communism and radical strikes, in which respects it resembles exactly the beginning of Mus-solini's campaign in Italy.

In Germany the movement began last summer, and Fascista bands are operating all over the country. There the movement is plainly for the overthrow of the existing Government with Bavaria the first objective.

Gen. Ludendorff appears to be the secret Mussolini of Germany. In Bavaria the name National Socialist German Workers party is selected to disguise the real object, which is the very opposite of Socialism, namely, the restoration of the monarchy, military dictatorship and a merger of Bavaria and the Austrian Tyrol.

The Hungarian police has been raiding the headquarters of the Fascisti there, but despite this the movement is spreading rapidly. The Horthy Government, realizing the danger, has ordered all unions to disperse. In Hungary as in Germany these organizations so far are secret, even the names of the leaders being concealed, but they are no doubt closely following the methods of the Italian bands.

The basic idea upon which Mussolini built the armed organization which captured Rome recently was excessive patriotism as opposed to the internationalism of Socialism and Communism.

It was upon this that militant warfare was waged against newspapers and unions and a reign of terror instituted.

This appeal to patriotism, which was so successful in Italy in bringing out young men for militant political purposes, apparently is now being adopted by the reactionary leaders in Hungary, Austria and Germany, all bands, as in Italy, being secretly armed and orders circulated by grapevine methods. How far Mussolini himself is encouraging the movement in other countries is not yet clearly disclosed.

"The world is swinging to strong government again and Italy means to lead the way," Mussolini recently remarked to THE NEW YORK HERALD correspondent in Rome, from which it can be assumed that these outside movements would have his sympathy.

Bavarian Fascisti

Creeping Into Prussia

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Copyright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York Herald Bureau.

Berlin, Nov. 22.

The renaissance of Adolf Hitler's National Socialist Party in Prussia, under the name of All German Workers' Party, and the defense of Hitler's campaign in Bavaria by the Bavarian Minister of the Interior are the day's developments in the German Fascista movement. Meanwhile, in Dresden, the erstwhile capital of the "Red Kingdom," bloody clashes between the Communists and the police continue. Dresden virtually is in a state of siege, and foreigners, including many Americans, are fleeing by every train, although thus far nobody has been killed in the spasmodic rioting there.

Although only two days have elapsed since the Prussian Ministry of the Interior decreed the dissolution of the Prussian branch of the Socialist party, one of Hitler's disciples, Paul Hocke, last night at Potsdam was elected president of a new organization called the All German Workers' Party. The aims of this group are the same as those of their Bavarian comrades, including disavowal of the Versailles treaty and a crusade against the Jews.

The authorities in Berlin are keeping a close watch on developments. Following reports that an effort would be made to plunder stores the police department issued an order prohibiting all outdoor meetings and parades.

A merger of Bavaria and Austrian Tyrol and a Roman Catholic monarchy established through the medium of a military dictatorship are the immediate objects of the Fascista bands now operating secretly but with growing daring all over Germany, so THE NEW YORK HERALD correspondent is informed from a reliable source in intimate contact with the Berlin agents of the Bavarian rebels.

The German Fascist plans, which have been submitted for approval to both Gen. Ludendorff and Mussolini, call for the overthrow by force, if necessary, of the republic in Bavaria and the creation of an armed dictatorship at Munich and the eventual restoration to the throne as absolute monarch of some member of the Wittelsbach family, probably the Ex-Crown Prince Rupprecht.

This melodramatic coup is to be accomplished by means of a "people's army," which is being recruited in secrecy by Adolf Hitler, head of the so-called National Socialist German Workers party, which is neither Socialist nor representative of the working class, but purely Fascista. Although Hitler affects to disdain a monarchy and demands a simple military dictatorship beneath which all democratic institutions will be crushed, the monarchists, headed by the Bavarian Ex-Chancellor von Kahr, believe they have won him over to their cause.

In the event that all reactionary factions agreed the first step will be to put all power in the hands of a dictator. Who the omnipotent one is to be nobody knows, but indications point to Col. Xylander, chief of the Bavarian militia, who, sub rosa, is hand in glove with Ludendorff.

The Fascista Congress held by the Germans in Innsbruck last summer convinced them that their Tyrolean fellows were quite ready to join them in forming a solid Fascista State. Separation from Germany is not an essential part of the Bavarian scheme, but no orders from the Berlin Government are to be obeyed by the Fasci. Help from Hungary and Italy and friendly neutrality on the part of France is confidently counted on by the plotters. The Hungarian rulers naturally are anti-democratic and Mussolini, who visited his Munich brothers in arms a few months ago, is supposed to have pledged material support to their cause.

The French cabinet on the other hand is credited with willingness to lend its approval to any movement tending to split up Germany. While the hopes of the Fascisti are centered immediately in Bavaria they are carrying on a tremendous propaganda campaign throughout the entire country. In Prussia and the smaller northern states they have organized a League for Nationalist Republican Defense which, despite its name, is bitterly against any republic.

Hitler, who is behind this organization, picked the title to persuade the Prussian workers that it was not monarchistic in tendency. The notorious Lieut. Roessbach, ex-leader of the Sillesian Fasci, who was arrested last Saturday and mysteriously released forthwith, is hard at work drumming up recruits for several different Fascista bands. Arnhardt, who was indirectly identified with the Consul group of assassins who killed Matthias Erzberger and Dr. Walter Rathenau, has reappeared in Munich. The Consul gang is understood to have changed its name but not its murderous aims and is allied with the most militant of the Bavarian Fascisti. All organizations, secret or otherwise, which are plotting the downfall of the German republic resemble the Ku Klux Klan in that all are violently anti-Semitic and anti-foreign. And all have been vastly encouraged by the triumph of the Italian Fasci.

Barney Oldfield says

"..... I have used many makes of high grade cars, but none has ever had a harder service than my two Marmons. Since I began making Oldfield tires, which I test personally, I have driven my Marmon Speedster continuously under most extreme conditions—high speed on race tracks and on bad roads and hard going in cross country trips.

"Mrs. Oldfield has used the Coupe on two cross country trips and has often remarked as to the extreme comfort of riding and the great ease with which she handled the car."

(Barney Oldfield)

AND when you consider that this is accomplished at the lowest cost per mile, the performance is still more remarkable.

Marmon's new Standardized Service, the most revolutionary service feature of the day, reduces costs to a minimum. And it gives the owner of any recent series Marmon the satisfaction of knowing in advance the precise cost and exact time a repair or overhaul job will require.
